

Christopher McDonald
Finance Director

Chris McDonald joined Bespoke Collection in 2018, bringing over 20 years of finance leadership, operations control, and product management to his role on the Bespoke Finance Team.

Prior to Bespoke Collection, Chris worked with Saxco International in Northern CA as a Group Controller with a focus on Forecasting and Financial Reporting for multiple divisions. Prior to Saxco, Chris led a team as Senior Finance Director with NBC Sports Bay Area & California. Focuses in this role included accounting for live televised sports production of numerous professional and collegiate sports organizations with annual budgeting & forecasting, preparing and presenting financial statements, and providing analytics to all department heads in sales, marketing, production and operations.

Chris holds a B.S. degree in Business Administration, Finance from Chico State University and is an accredited CPA in the State of California.